Flashback & Funny Forward, is a comedy, musical variety review show that takes audiences on a journey beginning with a flash from American Vaudeville and continues through the USO performance era and brings it forward with portrayals of beloved modern performers. The show combines singing, dancing, piano playing, multimedia visuals, comedic and historic sketches and tributes to many favorite American Performers including W.C. Fields, Mae West, Cab Calloway, Ethel Merman, Ginger Rogers, The Andrew Sisters, Lucille Ball, Ray Charles, Phyllis Diller, Big Joe Turner, and Rose Marie. The show also has modern fun and flair featuring character portrayals of Gilda Radner, Dolly Parton, Joan Rivers, Sonny & Cher, Olivia Newton John and many original characters. The show is an uplifting, toe tapping, knee slapping, family friendly show that will have you laughing and humming all the way home.

The show's ensemble of stars includes Michelle Krajecki, Christie McLendon, Kayla Ross and Darryl Van Leer. Michelle Krajecki was born and raised in Chicago. Her comedy comes from her mid-western, middle class, middle child views. She is a graduate of The Second City Training Program in Chicago and Zanies stand-up comedy classes. She hosts her own comedy minute on 95.9 a suburban Chicago radio station, is a co-host of her own comedy cable television show, "Comedy-At-Random". In addition to Flashback & Funny Forward, Michelle performs at comedy clubs and events all over the U.S.

Christie McLendon is a tiny little blonde with a big smile and an even bigger personality who brings her special blend of amazing singing ability with her comic acting to the stage in her performances. Christie has an extensive background in starring in plays and musical productions. McLendon is also a part of a traveling troupe that performs as the characters from "The Andy Griffith Show," portraying Charlene Darling, part of the infamous Darling family on the show. She is known nationally for her musical character portrayals including her own spin on Dolly Parton and other well know classic female artists.

Kayla Ross has entertained audiences all over the U.S. with her dancing skills. She has been trained professionally for over 15 years in tap, ballet, jazz, lyrical, contemporary, and Irish step dancing. Kayla is also a trained gymnast, aerialist, percussionist and vocalist. Kayla has also been a feature dancer in music videos. Darryl Van Leer captivates his audiences with his astonishing portrayals of great Americans in seven acclaimed one-man shows that he's written, produced and starred. Van Leer is also an accomplished film and television actor, performer, singer and musician. He has shared the screen with James Earl Jones, Samuel Jackson, Gregory Harrison, Rue McClanahan, and Beau Bridges. He has starred in TLC's series The Messengers, and the Nickelodeon movie, First Time, the story of Jackie Robinson. He also appeared in Safe Harbor and roles on One Tree Hill & is featured in two HBO original movies, The Second Civil War and Up Against the Wall, as well as Fox's Steel Chariots and NBC's original movie, Witness to the Execution. Darryl also has performed worldwide illuminating his audiences by transforming into Ray Charles, Elton John, Little Richard and many more!

Her career highlights include her studies with the Dayton Ballet School, and serving currently as a national adjudicator for Kids Artistic Revue and Rainbow Dance acclaimed competitions.

The Show was created and developed over the past 18 months in Springfield, Ohio utilizing and researching the historic connection between vaudeville and Springfield, Ohio and Citizen Gus Sun, known as the King of Vaudeville. Gus Sun was the stage name of a circus juggler named Gustave Klotz (born 1868, died 1959) who developed a booking agency in Springfield, Ohio that epitomized Small Time Vaudeville. He was an entertainer, turned agent, turned vaudeville touring producer-who eventually operated close to 300 theaters that featured vaudeville. Some of the entertainment world's best acts had their start in Springfield. Bob Hope, Eddie Cantor, and W.C. Fields, all got their start in what was known as "Gus Sun Time." Others booked by the Sun Agency Included Mae West, Al Jolson, Will Rogers, and Ted Lewis. The Marx Brothers gave their first professional appearance on stage at the New Sun Theater in Springfield. Many historic images from that time period are utilized during the show.
